

Don't Let the Walls Foreclose in on You.

In an effort to reduce the number of home foreclosures in Indiana, Lt. Governor Becky Skillman announced the launch of a major statewide initiative to assist Hoosiers who are in danger of losing their homes.

Hoosiers facing foreclosure can call a toll-free number, 877-GET-HOPE. This toll-free, confidential help-line is available 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. daily, at no cost to the consumer. Services include budgeting help, a written financial plan or assistance in contacting lenders. Whenever possible, counselors assist homeowners over the phone. If more extensive assistance is needed, the counselor refers the homeowner to a certified foreclosure intervention specialist. Also, a Web site www.877GetHope.org is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The initiative is lead by the Indiana Foreclosure Prevention Network (IFPN), a public-private partnership of government agencies, lenders, community service and housing-related organizations.

If you're worried that foreclosure could be in your future, don't delay. Call 877-GET-HOPE. Don't wait until it's too late. Call today.
